SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith for the consideration of Govern copy of Board's resolution dated the 2d January 1903 regarding the necessity for amending the existing bye-laws in connection with the burial and burning grounds in the City on the lines of those in force in the Cord

Military Station. The City Municipal bye-laws do not provide for licensed grave-diggers and are otherwise defective in many respects. A certain alterations and additions are required in these bye-laws for the proper control of the burial and burning grounds in the City both public and private, I beg to submit herewith a set of draft-bye-laws as passed by the Board for the approval of Government

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant,

the business on the Agenda paper.

If any member present draws the attention of the meeting to any portion of the minutes of the previous meeting as being erroneously entered in the Minute Book, such amendment as to the President seems proper shall be made.

4 With the consent of the majority of members present at any meeting, the President may give priority to any item or items of business, irrespective of the order

(4) The Chairman may give priority to any item or items of business irrespective of the order in which such item or items stand in which such item or items stands. or stand on the Agenda paper or stand on the Agenda paper.

5. If more than one meeting is held on the same day, it shall be competent to the President, with the consent of the majority of members present, to submit for consideration as one subject, for disposal by one meeting, any two or more items of business relating to the same subject, although such separate items shall appear on the Agenda papers of another and distinct meeting to be held on the same day.

The President shall have power to divide into two or more distinct propositions any motion or amendment which in his opinion is so complicated as to be likely to lead to confusion or inconvenience by being debated on as one proposition. But when by virtue of the Rule a motion or amendment is divided, it shall not be necessary, unless the President decide to the contrary, for the second and following portions of such motion or amendment to be again separately moved and seconded. But the the propositions so divided shall be put to the vote by the President one after the other.

Any member may be allowed to address the Board in his own language, the same being translated for the benefit of the members who do not understand him

Written speeches may not be read without the permission of the meeting.

(13) A Commissioner shall not read his speech, but may refresh his memory from notes, and may with the consent of the Chairman, read passages from books or documents cited in behalf of his argument.

9	The President shall decide summarily all points of order or procedure.	(1) All points of order shall be decided by the Chairman alone, and the Chairman's decision upon a point of order may not be disputed at the meeting at which it is given. If any Commissioner desires to dispute the decision of the Chairman, he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

10 Members when speaking shall stand and shall address the President. On being requested by the President to sit down a member shall at once resume his seat.

(6) A Commissioner wishing to speak must rise in his place. The Commissioner who first rises to speak has the right to be heard. In cases of doubt the Chairman shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a Commissioner shall be permitted, except that the Chairman may call the Commissioner to order, and any other Commissioner may rise and request the Chairman to call the speaker to order, or request the Chairman to notice that a quorum is

If a member be called to order such member shall be required by the President to resume his seat until the President decides the point of order. Provided that the President may allow the member called to order to speak on the point of order raised.

If there be any refusal on the part of the meeting to obey the Ruling of the President on a point of order, it shall be competent to him to

If adjourn the meeting at once and when any declaration of adjournment shall have been made, on him or any not present.

(7) All points of order shall be decided by the chairman alone, and the Chairman's decision upon a point of order may not be disputed at the meeting at which it is given. If any Commissioner desires to dispute the decision of the Chairman, he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

any ground, any Resolution which may be passed by the Residue of the meeting shall be void and of no effect, and shall not appear on the minutes

12 A member who proposes to move any substantive motion or resolution shall give notice of his intention to the President at least four clear days before the date of the meeting at which such motion or resolution is to be brought forward, in order to admit of the publication of the said proposition with the list of the business to be transacted at the said meeting.

Each proposition or motion shall be legibly written or printed - in the English language - and shall be read by the mover, who shall, if he desires, speak in favor of the motion or proposition. The motion or proposition shall then be handed to the President or Chairman of the meeting.

If any member seconds the motion or proposition, it shall be considered as before the meeting for discussion. The Seconder may, on seconding the motion or proposition, speak in support of it, but,

(8) 2nd Proviso. Provided also that any Commissioner may second a proposition or amendment by saying "I second the proposition" or "amendment," and may reserve his right to speak he so desires, may reserve his remarks for a later period of the debate.

13. Members shall speak only, but either the mover or the seconder of a substantive motion may reply at the conclusion of the debate thereon. Provided that the President, at his discretion, may at any time allow a member who has already spoken to make a brief explanation.

8. [Each Commissioner rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting, or to an amendment which he himself is about to move, or to a point of order.] A Commissioner who has spoken to a proposition or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such proposition or amendment

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply after the chairman has ascertained that no other Commissioner entitled to speak, desires to speak

14. After a motion has been proposed and seconded, any member may propose an amendment thereto. An amendment must be seconded or it falls.

(10) After a proposition has been moved and seconded, any Commissioner may propose an amendment through. Any number of amendments may be before the meeting at the same time.

Commissioner shall be at liberty to propose more than one amendment to any proposition, except when such proposition is for the passing of a Budget or of a set of General Rules, or is otherwise of such a nature as to require the making of many amendments to different parts of it.

(11). The proposer of an amendment shall hand it in writing to the Chairman at any time before he resumes his seat. When the mover of a proposition or an amendment has resumed his seat, the Chairman shall read-read the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any Commissioner second it, and until the proposition or amendment is seconded, the Chairman shall not permit any discussion on the question. If no Commissioner seconds the proposition or amendment, the Chairman shall declare that the proposition or amendment is lost.

15 A motion or an amendment cannot be withdrawn, save with the permission of the President and the consent of the meeting.

(20) A proposition or amendment which has been moved and seconded cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.

16. A member who has already spoken to a motion before the meeting is not thereby debarred from speaking to an amendment to the motion, provided that in so doing, he confines himself strictly to the fresh matter introduced by the amendment.

direct his speech to the question before the meeting or to an amendment which he himself is about to propose or to a point of order.

17. Amendments shall be put to the vote in the reverse order in which they have been moved as against the original proposition; that is to say, that the proposition and the last amendment shall be put to the meeting first. Whichever of those two is carried shall then become the substantive proposition, which again shall be placed before the meeting as against the last but one amend-amendment, and so on. Where there is a proposition to adjourn the meeting, or to postpone the consideration of a particular question, that proposition shall always take the precedence.

Every question voted on shall be put both for and against

(22) When a question is put to the vote, the Chairman shall call for a show of hands & the Chairman, or a Commissioner, at his request shall count the hands shown for and against, and declare the result. If any Commissioner challenges the correctness of the number thus declared, the hands shall be counted a second time. Provided that if any two Commissioners request a poll, the Chairman shall call the roll of the Commis

18. No motion shall be entertained in regard to a question once disposed of except after the lapse of three months from the date of such disposal unless the President decides otherwise.

minutes of the meeting the names of the Commissioners voting for and against

(24) No proposition shall be entertained in regard to a question once disposed of, except after the lapse of three months from the date of such disposal; or except on the written application of more than 2/3rds of the Commissioners, provided that this rule shall not apply to questions that have been raised and are pending in correspondence with the Resident in Mysore, or the Collector & Distt: Magistrate of the Mandya

If a member draws attention to the fact that there is no quorum of members present, the President shall forthwith suspend the proceedings and cause the members to be counted. On being satisfied that there is no quorum of members, he shall adjourn the meeting to some future day. Provided always that this rule shall not apply to meetings which have been adjourned for want of a quorum.

(5) If during a meeting the Chairman notices that a quorum is not present, or any Commissioner calls the attention of the Chairman to the fact that a quorum is not present, the Chairman shall immediately [illegible] the business of the and shall count the number of members present, and if that number is insufficient to form a quorum, the Chairman may either at once adjourn the meeting or may wait for a period not exceeding fifteen minutes to give an opportunity for the re-assembling of a quorum. If during these fifteen minutes a quorum re assembles, business may be resumed. If at the expiration of these fifteen minutes a qu
